Per a source, some time in the last few weeks, the original of a video titled Scientology Black Ops, SPTV and The Protect Button was removed from view at Zero Dark Tony's youtube channel. What appears to be the same video is still available at Rumble, but it is also archived as well.

Dana Whitmire (aka Rotting Jewels aka DanaDooDah) and Tony D'Amato (Zero Dark Tony) video titled: Scientology Black Ops, SPTV and The Protect Button

Streamed live September 2, 2023.

Have a look at that video.

Start at 01:09:07.

Notes.

*At 01:10:47 Dana "I always try to respect peoples privacy."

*At 01:11:01 Dana "Yes. It would be appropriate to show the blog because it is the receipts."

*At 01:11:49 Dana brings up on the screen, a post from my blog about Nora Sova Ames Crest and her father Con Sova, whom I recruited back in the 1970's

*At 01:11:49 Dana brings up on the screen, a post from my blog about Nora Sova Ames Crest and her father Con Sova, whom I recruited back in the 1970's to be my asset when I was in charge of intelligence for the Guardian Office Church of Scientology San Francisco - BEFORE Nora Sova Ames Crest WAS BORN.

Note: Nora has ZERO first hand knowledge of any of that. Nothing that I have seen from her on that topic has been free of either irrelevant, fabricated, or hearsay rewriting of history on her part to suit some kind of anti-McClaughrys agenda.

You can view this originally posted in 2016 blog post, the last updated version, right here: <https://web.archive.org/web/202511032...> ----- it just got put in the wayback machine so anyone can look for themselves.

*At 01:11:54 Dana scrolls through the blog post to the title, which says Protected in front of it and has a place to enter a password.

*At 01:12:00 Dana says "They have given me the password temporarily."

"They" is referring to us, the McClaghrys. The password was given to Dana in a youtube comment to one of her community posts. Publicly visible.

Not exactly a state secret.

Not exactly a state secret.

Nora Sova Ames Crest, 3 days after this video, on September 5, 2023 attacks Loren Spethman who had pinned a post with this same video at his Facebook page [<http://bit.ly/47nZzsn>]. There is an extensive back and forth in the comments there between Loren and Nora. Much like she did with Dana, she basically attempted to bully Loren into silence, she lied to him, tried to turn him against us etc.

In light of the direct evidence in the video, what I want to focus on right now is that Nora Sova Ames Crest accused Loren of giving Dana the password in the form of a trick "do you still beat your wife" type of question.

If she watched the video enough to know what was said, then why is she falsely accusing Loren? Are there undisclosed someones manipulating her to carry out an agenda towards us?

Loren Spethman the video on the whole is a lie about me. I am not OSA. Nor were my parents. My father never worked for the guardians office officially. Yes he and Mike were friends. I put that in air quotes in my response because mike and a Virginia in their responses were condescending and rude and tried to tell me I didn't know my father as well as they did. Because they knew the social
